

SP #1: Enhance and grow educational programs through transformative innovation, collaboration, and stakeholder engagement

Description	Building on the unique attributes of Peoria, expand the educational footprint and educational opportunities in diverse settings.	Critical Success Factor
Tactics	i) Expand GME Programs at UICOMP and grow residency programs in the region, including rural residency programs, based on needs assessment and fiscal viability	a) Building and unleashing the human potential b) Adaptability and Growth
	ii) Develop dual degree programs for medical students , residents, and fellows in collaboration with UIC and regional educational institutions.	Timeline to Implementation
	iii) Establish graduate degree and doctoral programs at UICOMP based on needs assessment and growth opportunities
	iv) Embed innovative technology and new models of care delivery in medical student/resident education
	v) Expand community health outreach and community service opportunities for learners by consolidating and effectively coordinating current programs and through creation of new service learning opportunities
	vi) Conduct a comprehensive needs assessment on UICOMP's role in providing CME programs that helps strengthen patient care, care delivery and scholarship.
Metrics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • New GME programs developed • Student competence in use of technology and telehealth • Community outreach activities • Metrics on advocacy outcomes that tie to educational metrics 	PROVIDE FEEDBACK