WORK

FROM TRACTORS TO ROBOTS

Greater Peoria has long been a mecca for makers. Caterpillar grew into a Fortune 100 leader here, flanked by hundreds of manufacturers serving global industries. And our rich Midwestern soil places you among the world's most abundant agricultural regions.

Today's diverse economy encompasses manufacturing, agriculture and so much more. Healthcare is the fastest-growing sector, joined by thriving businesses in industries from financial services and education to engineering, robotics, autonomy and beyond.

MAKE YOUR MARK

From innovative startups to internationally known firms, Greater Peoria's employers serve in-demand industries worldwide:

MANUFACTURING

In addition to Caterpillar, the region is home to over 350 manufacturing firms large and small, from heavy equipment to steel production to specialty manufacturing.

HEALTHCARE

More than 30,000 residents are employed at two major health systems, dozens of specialty providers and schools of nursing.

CONSTRUCTION & ENGINEERING

Greater Peoria's firms are second to none — designing and building world-class projects across the state and around the nation.

TECHNOLOGY & INNOVATION

Greater Peoria's innovators and entrepreneurs bring new concepts to life every day. Think autonomy, robotics, electric vehicles, biotech, sustainable materials and more.

FINANCIAL SERVICES

Four major insurance firms are headquartered here, while banks, credit unions and wealth management firms offer a host of career opportunities.

EDUCATION

From community colleges and four-year universities to public, private and faith-based schools, career options abound in the education sector.

But that's not all! In Greater Peoria, you'll find opportunities in transportation & logistics, legal services, nonprofits, government, energy, hospitality, the arts and much more. Whatever your industry, it's a great place to build your career.

START SOMETHING NEW

Innovation is alive in Greater Peoria. It's a great place to birth a business, thanks to lab, incubator and coworking spaces and a host of resources to support entrepreneurs. Multiple biotech and medtech startups have launched here in recent years. And other locally based innovators are already changing the world with unique, groundbreaking solutions. That includes Natural Fiber Welding's plant-based sustainable materials and Pringle Robotics' BoTs for the hospitality, healthcare and retail markets.

“Greater Peoria isn’t just about work – it’s also a fantastic place to raise a family and pursue your passions. I get to play my favorite sport, cricket, enjoy outdoors walking the trails, and connect with like-minded professionals to exchange ideas and drive growth.”
